

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Andrea Pellacani

acpellacani@bigfishcreative.com

671.649.3474

SPPC donates to GMH Volunteers Association

May 2, 2013 – On April 1, 2013, South Pacific Petroleum Corporation participated as a Pattera sponsor and presented a check in the amount of $3000.00 to the Guam Memorial Hospital Volunteers Association for their 45th GMH Volunteers Association Charity Ball / Fund Drive. This amount will be applied towards the purchase of much needed hospital beds and / or ventilator. GMHVA holds various fundraisers throughout the year and is committed to improve the quality of patient care at Guam Memorial Hospital.

Pictured from left to right are Lina, McDonald, MargaretDiego, Cecilia Solidum – Charity Ball Co-Chairperson, Toni Pecon – Charity Ball Chairperson, Mark J. Sablan – SPPC Vice President, Josephine Mesa – GMHVA President, Dorothy Borlas, and Lou Lujan.

SPPC is a local company, operating 13 retail service stations under the licensed name 76 and Circle K. SPPC is rooted in the island with the majority of its board members residing on Guam and its growing commitment to spearhead community projects that make a difference, such as the “Clean Your Closet”, “Drive for Charity Golf Tournament” and “Holiday Helping Hands”. SPPC also owns SPGas, the island's largest supplier of LP gas, and is the licensee of the 76 fuel and lube brands, owned by ConocoPhillips Corporation and Phillips 66. SPPC is also the franchisee of the Circle K brand, owned by Alimentation Couche-Tard. SPPC’s workforce of over 140 local employees is helping the company to remain a viable, community oriented company today, and for future generations to come.

###